Homer did extremely well at the Pender Invitational, coming away with first place in the boys' varsity team scoring and second place in the girls' varsity. Caden Barclay finished first for Homer in 6th place, followed closely by Jessup Snowball 7th, Triston Owens 9th, Junius Snowball 10th, and Aayden Harris 11th. Lilly Harris finished first for the Homer girls in 4th place followed by Jaedyn Bousquet 6th, Tawny Bolles 11th, Okie Bolles 19th, and Natali Cardasis 26th.

New Staff

by Ethan Roberts

Mr. Spencer Koehn came to work at Homer because he grew up in a town like Homer. "Homer makes me feel like I'm teaching back in my own hometown," said Mr. Koehn. He fell in love with history at a young age and now teaches it to junior high students. Mr. Koehn also helps with the Homer Cross Country team.

Mrs. Alex DeBell subbed at Homer multiple times last year and loved the environment. Mrs. DeBell loves the teachers and the children at the school. "I came to Homer to work this year because I love the small school atmosphere," said Mrs. DeBell. She is now the full-time school nurse at Homer Community Schools.

Alivia Hurni is a paraeducator. This is her first year at Homer School. Mrs. Hurni is an elementary para, and she bounces around from room to room helping the classes. The reason she came to Homer was because she loves the small-town scene, and her mother actually graduated from Homer.
